The tile is no longer a cold product, but integrated into a certain emotional element. So that people can also feel the warmth of home from the noisy world.

At the same time, it is also conveying a simple and fashionable life concept to people.

CERAMIQUE
Land of Great Ceramic & Tiles

Inspired by life in Napoli, it is the combination of free and romantic colors and unrestrained texture. Through the multi- channeled color scheme, the tile can present colors with a high technical level such as oxford gray and neutral gray.
